ATTENDEE SCHOLARSHIPS

Increasing access to the WWRM

WWRM

Transforming wind–wildlife understanding through science and collaboration

OCTOBER 27 - 30, 2026 | ALBUQUERQUE, NEW MEXICO

REWI

Discounted Attendance
Full access to all sessions and discussions, including the virtual event platform

Networking Opportunities
Connect with professionals, researchers, and energy and wildlife/natural resources experts

Learning and Engagement
Immerse yourself in cutting-edge insights and discussions on the intersection of energy and wildlife conservation.

Email wwrm@rewi.org with your name and organization/ educational institution to request the application form

est. time to complete ~20 minutes

Scholarship-eligible candidates include:

- Higher education students and early-career professionals interested in renewable energy and wildlife conservation.
- Members of underrepresented groups in energy and wildlife conservation.
- Individuals employed in relevant fields lacking institutional resources/funding.

*Intended to support individuals from small businesses/organizations that would otherwise be unable to fund attendance

REWI

The REWI Research Meeting Scholarship Program provides eligible individuals with the unique opportunity to participate in REWI's annual Research Meetings for a significantly discounted rate. Scholarships are available for in-person or virtual attendance (with opportunities for in-person attendance limited). REWI is committed to fostering the next generation of leaders and increasing access to our events, and this program made possible with support from Research Meeting sponsors aims to foster valuable connections and knowledge-sharing.